

The dawn of precision medicine; the 100,000 Genomes Project across Wessex

Tuesday, 23 May 2017

Wessex Genomic Medicine Centre Engagement event

Winchester Science Centre and Planetarium, Telegraph Way, Winchester SO21 1HZ

For more information or to book please visit <http://bit.ly/2lfxkmk>

Time	Session	Delivery/Speaker
17:15	Registration – tea/ coffee available
18:00	Welcome	Dr Frank Ratcliff – Senior Project Manager, Wessex AHSN
18:05	What is a Genome?	Vivienne Parry – Head of Engagement, Genomics England
18:10	100,000 Genomes – National Overview	Prof. Sue Hill OBE – Chief Scientific Officer for England
18:25	Wessex GMC – An Introduction	Prof. Karen Temple and Prof. Tony Williams – Wessex GMC Clinical Programme Directors
18:40	Questions
18:45	Meet the patients
18:55	Referral and Recruitment	Christine Gast – Portsmouth Hospitals NHS Trust
19:00	Samples and Requirements	TBC
19:05	Data and Informatics	Siobhan Laws – Hampshire Hospitals Foundation Trust
19:10	Analysis and Results	Prof. Nick Cross – Salisbury NHS Foundation Trust
19:15	LDP Q&A
19:25	What does the future hold?	Vivienne Parry – Head of Engagement, Genomics England
19:50	Final Questions
	Canapes and Networking
20:40	Close	